

Oroville Police Social Media Disclaimer

Welcome to the Oroville Police Departments Official Facebook page. These guidelines apply to any and all existing or future social media platforms operated by the Oroville Police Department. Examples of social media platforms that may be used by this department include, but are not limited to, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and YouTube, the purpose of these sites is to enable The Oroville Police Department to post matters of public interest concerning the Oroville Police Departments programs, activities, meetings, current events, press releases, photos, and videos to enable members of the public to comment on those posts. The Oroville Police Department utilizes social media for marketing, advertising, and informational purposes related to all department matters which shall include matters including other outside agencies, and areas within and outside the boundaries of the department's jurisdiction. The Oroville Police Department has developed its media sites as a forum devoted exclusively to its postings, and comments from members of the public relevant to the subject matter of the post to which they are responding.

The Oroville Police Department works to protect the accuracy and integrity of the information posted on its social media platforms and of content attributable to the Oroville Police Department and its officials, mindful that our community members rely on the information provided by the Oroville Police Departments social media sites to be truthful, accurate, and complete. The department reserves the right to block, remove, hide, restrict, and/or reject comments violating any of the terms outlined in the department's full social media terms and conditions.

Individuals who repeatedly post content on any future or existing Oroville Police Department social media sites that continue to violate the social media terms and conditions policy set forth by this agency are subject to the California Public Records Act and therefore, may be subject to public disclosure. This includes comments and other posts made by third parties on the Oroville Police Departments accounts, which may be considered public records subjects to disclosure.

The Oroville Police Department is not responsible for, and neither endorses nor opposes, comments placed on this site by visitors to the site. Any comments submitted to these pages are public records subject to disclosure, as are their lists of fans.